Statement of Faith

We believe the Bible to be the inspired, infallible, authoritative Word of God.

We believe in one God eternally existing in three persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

We believe in the deity of the Lord Jesus Christ, in His virgin birth, in His sinless life, in His atonement for the sins of all who believe in Him, in His bodily resurrection and ascension into Heaven, and in His personal return in power and glory.

We believe that man was created in the image of God, and that he sinned and thereby incurred not only physical, but spiritual death which is separation from God.

We believe that all who receive by faith the Lord Jesus Christ, and personally accept His substitutionary sacrifice as justification for their sin, become children of God.

We believe in the spiritual unity of believers in our Lord Jesus Christ, and the commitment we share to spread His Word and to minister to the needs of one another.

Meet the Counselors

David Scott, MA, LAC, LAPC:

"We are often tempted by worldly desires or idols (substance abuse, gambling, pornography, etc.) that can take a foothold in our lives and drive wedges between us and God and others in our lives. Counseling is a venue that can be used to identify those desires and/or idols that stand between us and our relationships with God and others. It serves as a vehicle for us to develop the primary principle presented in 1 Corinthians 10:13. With Christ, there is always a way out of any temptation this world has to offer."

David is a Licensed Addiction Counselor (LAC) and a Licensed Associate Professional Counselor (LAPC) in North Dakota. He holds a Master of Arts degree in Counseling from the University of North Dakota. David has been a practicing therapist since 2008, specializing in individual, group, and family therapy for substance abuse and other behavioral health issues along with providing community education. He resides with his wife and four children in Grand Forks.

Carol Torgerson, MS, LPC:

"Problems are always easier to solve when one has the help of someone who cares. If you have been trying to tough things out on your own or avoiding issues in your relationship that hold you back from realizing your full potential, come see me! I will help you make positive changes in your life--both immediate and lasting. Together we will work towards solving any problems that may be standing in your way towards achieving a greater sense of self."

Carol is a Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC) in North Dakota and Minnesota. She holds master's degrees in Counseling from North Dakota State University and in Addiction Studies from Grand Canyon University. She has worked as a school counselor for 14 years and as an LPC since 2007. She currently resides in East Grand Forks with her husband and two of their eight children.
